Exhibit B to Registration StatementPursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .32 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

CONSULTING AGREEMENT

2026 U.S.–Taiwan Trade & Investment Booklet

September 12, 2026

This document shall serve as an agreement (the “Agreement”) between the International Trade Administration, Ministry of Economic Affairs of the Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as “TITA”), and Access Partnership Corp (hereinafter referred to as “Access Partnership”), regarding the engagement by which Access Partnership will provide TITA with consulting services as set forth in this Agreement.

1. Retention

Access Partnership’s client under the Agreement will be TITA, for which the Economic Division of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (“TECRO”) may act in Washington, D.C., U.S.A.

2. Services

Access Partnership shall provide the following professional services in connection with the production of the 2026 U.S.–Taiwan Trade & Investment Booklet:

- (a) Content development — drafting and updating the Executive Summary, forewords from the Minister of Economic Affairs of Taiwan and Taiwan’s Representative to the United States, and a sector overview covering semiconductors, artificial intelligence, clean energy, and healthcare, reflecting current U.S.–Taiwan economic and trade conditions;
- (b) Data compilation — sourcing and compiling updated state-by-state trade, investment, and employment data from U.S. government databases, including the Bureau of Economic Analysis, U.S. Census Bureau, and the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative;
- (c) InDesign production — updating all text, charts, and data elements in TECRO’s existing InDesign source file, incorporating no new design elements; a full draft will be shared with TITA/TECRO for review prior to print submission;
- (d) Print coordination — managing the print run of 250 hard copies and arranging delivery as directed by TITA/TECRO; and
- (e) Providing TITA with a final editable digital copy of the updated InDesign file upon project completion.

3. Performance

- (a) Access Partnership represents that it is properly experienced, properly qualified, registered, licensed, equipped, organized, and financed to perform the Services in compliance with the terms of this Agreement.

4. Fees and Expenses

- (a) TITA shall pay Access Partnership a total fee of thirteen thousand two hundred and fifty U.S. dollars (US$13,250) for all Services set forth in Section 2 above, inclusive of professional services and print production costs for 250 hard copies of the booklet. Payment will be made in two installments: (i) an upfront deposit of ten percent (10%) of the total fee (US$1,325), due within 30 days of the date of signing of this Agreement; and (ii) the remaining ninety percent (90%) of the total fee (US$11,925), invoiced upon delivery of the final approved booklet, print copies, and digital file, with all deliverables to be completed no later than October 9, 2026, and due within 30 days of receipt of invoice.

(b) No additional fees or expenses beyond the fixed fee set forth in Section 4(a) will be charged under this Agreement without prior written authorization from TITA or TECRO, except as provided in Section 4(c) below.

(c) The 2026 U.S.–Taiwan Trade & Investment Booklet constitutes informational material produced and disseminated to U.S. audiences at the direction of a foreign principal, requiring Access Partnership to register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act ('FARA'), 22 U.S.C. §§ 611 et seq. TITA shall reimburse Access Partnership for the FARA registration fee of U.S. $305, as set by the U.S. Department of Justice. Access Partnership will submit a separate invoice for this fee upon filing, payable within 30 days of receipt.

5. Term

The term of this Agreement shall be from September 12, 2026 through October 31, 2026. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other, provided that TITA shall pay the fees and expenses of Access Partnership through the date of termination for work completed.

6. Relationship

(a) The parties have entered this Agreement as independent contractors. Each party is authorized to disclose this Agreement as such party may deem necessary or appropriate to comply with applicable laws, rules or government orders.

(b) Access Partnership hereby agrees for itself, and on behalf of its officers, directors, employees, and agents, that it will use its best efforts to maintain the confidentiality of all non-public information regarding TITA in connection with the performance of services to be provided by the firm hereunder specified; however, Access Partnership may disclose information as required by law or by judicial, administrative or Congressional process, so long as Access Partnership shall provide TITA reasonable advance notice of disclosure pursuant to such process.

(c) During the term of this Agreement, Access Partnership will not enter the employ of or contract with the government of the 'People's Republic of China'¹ or any entity of the government of the 'People's Republic of China.' Furthermore, Access Partnership and TITA recognize the need to avoid conflicts between Access Partnership's activities on behalf of its other clients and the interests of TITA. Access Partnership and TITA each agrees to identify any such potential conflict at the earliest possible opportunity and to bring the matter to the attention of the other party.

¹ The parties recognize and agree that the 'People's Republic of China' includes the Special Administrative Regions of Hong Kong and Macau.

7. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the total aggregate liability of either party, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall be limited to the total fees paid under this engagement. This limitation shall not apply to liability which cannot be excluded or limited by law, including but not limited to breaches of confidentiality or intellectual property obligations

8. Non-Solicitation of Personnel

During the term of this Agreement and for 12 months following its termination or expiry, neither Party shall, directly or indirectly, solicit or induce any employee or contractor of the other Party with whom it had material contact in connection with this Agreement to leave their employment or engagement. This restriction does not apply to general recruitment campaigns not specifically targeted at such individuals, approaches made by recruitment agencies without specific direction to target them, or individuals who independently approach the recruiting Party without prior solicitation.

9. Governing Law

The terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the District of Columbia and the United States of America, without giving effect to conflict of laws principles.

10. Counterparts

This Agreement is executed in counterparts in both English and Chinese languages, each of which is deemed to be an original and equally binding.
