Exhibit B to Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .32 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Hon. Isaiah Harrison Anyaogu
A.K.A. Ogechukwu Nkere
Chairman & President
Biafra Republic Government In-Exile
7200 Belair Road
Suite # 2
Baltimore, Maryland 21206

Dear Excellency:

We are excited to have the opportunity to work with you. This letter of Agreement sets forth the parameters of the business relationship between Washington & Madison, LLC (referred to as “W&M”), and the Biafra Republic Government in Exile (referred to as “BRGIE”).

Washington & Madison, LLC offers premium boutique international services through an innovative, integrated service model that combines government relations and public relations, international legal services, and intelligence, security, and investigative services. This comprehensive approach enables us to meet the complex and evolving needs of international clients, particularly those operating across political, economic, and security landscapes.

Washington & Madison, LLC has a strategic alliance and works in close cooperation led by renown international attorney Mr. Arman Dabiri, head of the Law Offices of Arman Dabiri & Associates P.L.L.C., who has represented many foreign governments and international clients, most notably serving as long-time legal counsel to Libyan leader Muammar Al-Gaddafi. Mr. Dabiri’s instrumental role in negotiating the $2.7 billion Lockerbie settlement led to the lifting of U.N. and U.S. sanctions against Libya and the restoration of diplomatic relations with the United States. Mr. Dabiri’s current and prior representative clients have included the Governments of Libya, Sudan, Armenia, Argentina, and Kazakhstan. Mr. Dabiri specializes in all issues relating to the United States Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, as well as Compliance with US sanctions and embargo Programs, Office of Foreign Asset Control (OFAC), Representation of Sovereign States, Representation of Embassies, Complex litigation, and Arbitration, mediation, negotiations.

Washington & Madison, LLC has strategic alliances and works closely with several senior former U.S. intelligence officials and operatives who perform high-end global private intelligence, investigations, and security work.

Scope of Representation

This would be a bilateral contract which if signed and returned to us will establish a contract between W&M and BRGIE. We will devote our best efforts to representing BRGIE and in doing so we will adhere strictly to both the legal and ethical obligations of our profession.

Under terms of this letter agreement, W&M agrees to provide BRGIE with strategic advice and facilitate interaction with appropriate members of the Executive and Legislative Branches of the U.S. government, as well as third-party interests.

W&M will facilitate and manage relations between BRGIE and the following U.S. stakeholders, among others:

- House and Senate Leadership
- House Foreign Affairs and Senate Foreign Relations Committees
- House and Senate Appropriations Committees
- House and Senate Armed Services Committees
- Relevant House and Senate Congressional Caucus organizations and working groups
- Senior State Department, National Security Council, and White House Officials
- U.S. Intelligence Community (IC)
- Prominent religious, ethnic, and civil society organizations and personalities
- Media outlets, think-tanks, and human rights organizations
- Diaspora in the United States
- U.S. and international oil and gas companies

Anticipated activities include lobbying, promotion, perception management, public relations, and preparation or dissemination of informational materials.

The US Administration should be encouraged to engage the BRGIE directly and through advocacy by the US Congress and other stakeholders, including faith-based and human rights organizations and think tanks.

W&M will advise the US Government and private sector stakeholders of the challenges faced by the people of Biafra, and share the arguments as to why Biafra should be recognized as an independent state. W&M will also educate U.S. and non-U.S. stakeholders on issues of concerns pertaining to the Government of Nigeria, including, but not limited to: human rights abuses, religious freedom issues, including Nigerian Christian genocide, increasing Islamic fundamentalism within the Nigerian government, the Nigerian government's alignment with U.S. adversaries, and broader security concerns, among other topics.

W&M and BRGIE agree to comply with all applicable laws, including those under the Lobbying Disclosure Act (LDA), as amended, the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA) as amended, and any regulations and/or rules promulgated thereunder. W&M acknowledges and understands that W&M will be solely responsible for its own compliance with all registration and reporting obligations imposed by FARA on W&M in connection with the services performed under this Agreement.

Relationship and Terms of Engagement

Subject to the terms of this paragraph, BRGIE and W&M will enter into a one-year contract, subject to renewal. BRGIE will pay a monthly fee of $12,000 USD for services provided from July 1st, 2026 to July 1st, 2027. This contract may be terminated with 30 days' notice provided on the first of the month prior to termination. Either party, without cause, may terminate this engagement with thirty (30) days prior written notice. Monthly fees will be billed in advance on the first of the month and due on or before the 15th day of each calendar month.

In addition, BRGIE will reimburse W&M for reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket items that W&M receives prior authorization for, and that exceed, $1,000.00. Administrative costs (phone, nominal travel, administrative support) are included in the retainer.

Independent Contractor

The Parties acknowledge awareness and stated preference that this is an agreement for services as an independent contractor. The Parties will exert all manner of good faith and take all reasonable efforts to ensure performance and prevent repudiation by other parties connected with its activities which could affect its performance under this Agreement. Furthermore, as an independent contractor, W&M shall not be held liable for any breach or failure to perform under subsequent contracts entered between BRGIE and any third Party.

It is further understood that W&M is retained by and has contracted with BRGIE only for the purpose(s) and to the extent set forth above, and that W&M is an independent contractor, and shall be free to provide services to such persons or corporations as W&M deems advisable so long as same does not create a conflict of interest.

General provisions

- a) No modification or waiver of this Agreement shall be binding unless in writing and signed by the parties hereto.
- b) Severability. If one or more of the provisions in this Agreement are deemed void by law, then the remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect.
- c) This Agreement, and all transactions contemplated hereby, shall be governed by, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia and the United States of America, without regard to its conflicts of laws provisions.
- d) Any dispute arising under, related to or concerning this Agreement shall be litigated exclusively in federal or state court of competent jurisdiction that is situated in the District of Columbia. In the event any legal action is necessary to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be able to recover any and all reasonable attorney fees and costs necessary to enforce this Agreement.
- e) The Client explicitly waives the defense and jurisdictional limitation to litigation in the District of Columbia and in the United States pursuant to the waiver provision of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. §1605(a)(1).
- f) During the term of this agreement and at all times thereafter, W&M shall not disclose confidential information related to BRGIE, or to third parties, nor use confidential information for any purpose whatsoever except for the purpose of performing services on behalf of BRGIE.
- g) W&M shall have sole responsibility for payment of all federal, State, and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, workmen's compensation, Social Security, and income tax laws and for filing all required tax forms with respect to any amounts paid by BRGIE hereunder and any amounts paid by W&M to its employees. W&M shall indemnify and hold BRGIE harmless against any claims or liability (including penalties) resulting from failure of W&M to pay such taxes or contributions, or failure of W&M to file any such tax forms.

In signing this letter and returning it to W&M, BRGIE will be indicating agreement to the fee schedule described herein and will be authorizing W&M to perform services according to the terms set forth herein.

Sincerely yours,
Washington & Madison, LLC
