Short Form Registration Statement

Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. Each partner, officer, director, associate, employee, and agent of a registrant is required to file a short form registration statement unless he engages in no activities in furtherance of the interests of the registrant's foreign principal or unless the services he renders to the registrant are in a secretarial, clerical, or in a related or similar capacity. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic short form registration statement at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .23 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Sole Member and Managing Member

Appendix Response to Item 11

Item 11: Describe in detail all services which you will render to the foreign principal listed in Item 10 either directly, or through the primary registrant listed in Item 8.

The individual provides strategic advisory, engagement facilitation, and implementation services to the Office of the Ruler of Ras Al Khaimah. Services initially included consultations with Ras Al Khaimah government entities, CEOs, and key stakeholders to identify priorities and opportunities for collaboration with Miami and South Florida; identification and engagement of relevant U.S. executives, institutions, and decision-makers; development of sector-specific engagement and matchmaking roadmaps; and preparation of recommendations for future governmental, institutional, academic, commercial, investment, tourism, technology, healthcare, real estate, and other strategic-sector cooperation.

Current and proposed services as of August 3, 2026 contractual date include implementation of the Miami-Ras Al Khaimah Strategic Partnership; identification and development of partnership and business opportunities; stakeholder outreach and introductions; coordination and facilitation of meetings, delegations, and official visits; support for partnership discussions and negotiations; strategic advice and market intelligence; and preparation and dissemination of informational and economic-development materials concerning Ras Al Khaimah.

Item 12: Do any of the above described services include political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act? If yes, describe separately and in detail such political activity. The response must include, but not be limited to, activities involving lobbying, promotion, perception management, public relations, economic development, and preparation or dissemination of informational materials.

Activities include introductory outreach and meetings with U.S. state and local government officials (County and City Mayors) and other stakeholders to promote awareness of Ras Al Khaimah, strengthen governmental and institutional relationships, and explore opportunities for economic, commercial, academic, tourism, investment, and other forms of cooperation. Activities may also include preparation and dissemination of informational and economic-development materials concerning Ras Al Khaimah. The individual does not presently intend to seek any specific legislative, regulatory, procurement, funding, or other U.S. policy action.
