Appendix

Response to Item 9(b)

Item 9(b): If the foreign principal is a foreign political party, state: Aim, mission or objective of engagement.

If you mean Kurdish people (not British people), I would phrase the mission more formally for a FARA filing:

The mission of the Komala Party of Kurdistan is to advocate for the rights, freedoms, equality, and self-determination of the Kurdish people in Iran. Its long-term political objective is the establishment of a democratic federal system in Iran that guarantees the Kurdish people equal political, cultural, and civil rights and allows them to exercise meaningful self-government within a federal framework.

Appendix Response to Item 10

Item 10: Will the activities on behalf of the above foreign principal include political activities as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act. If yes, describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose. The response must include, but not be limited to, activities involving lobbying, promotion, perception management, public relations, economic development, and preparation and dissemination of informational materials.

The registrant will represent the foreign principal in the United States by communicating its political positions and objectives to members of the public and, as appropriate, to U.S. government officials and policymakers. Activities may include attending and organizing meetings and community events, participating in television and media interviews, making public statements, engaging in community outreach, and preparing or sharing informational materials concerning the political interests and objectives of the foreign principal. The activities will focus on promoting awareness of the rights, freedoms, equality, and political interests of the Kurdish people in Iran and the foreign principal's objective of establishing a democratic federal system in Iran that provides equal rights and meaningful self-government to the Kurdish people. The registrant will not engage in fundraising or solicit or handle donations on behalf of the foreign principal.

Appendix Response to Item 11-Desc

Item 11-Desc: Prior to the date of registration for this foreign principal has the registrant engaged in any registrable activities, such as political activities, for this foreign principal? If yes, describe in full detail all such activities. The response should include, among other things, the relations, interests, and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored, or delivered speeches, lectures, social media, internet postings, or media broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers, and subject matter. The response must also include, but not be limited to, activities involving lobbying, promotion, perception management, public relations, economic development, and preparation and dissemination of informational materials. Set forth below a general description of the registrant's activities, including political activities.

For the form, I would keep it factual and neutral rather than making it sound more extensive than it was:

Prior to the formal agreement to serve as a representative of the foreign principal, I participated in television interviews concerning the organization and its political views, shared information and related content about the organization on social media, and attended several organizational/community meetings. These activities were informal and were not conducted as an official representative of the foreign principal, nor did they involve coordination with U.S. government officials or political representatives.
