

RSS FRIENDS

MINIMAL BYLAWS

A District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation

Effective Date: _____

Adopted by the Board of Directors: _____

ARTICLE 1 — PURPOSE

RSS Friends (the "Corporation") shall operate for the purposes stated in its Articles of Incorporation: to promote social harmony, the common good and general welfare of the community through civic betterment, social improvement, public education, and related lawful activities consistent with Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE 2 — NO MEMBERS

The Corporation shall have no members. All corporate powers and governance responsibilities shall be exercised by or under the authority of the Board of Directors, as permitted by District of Columbia law.

ARTICLE 3 — BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. Number. The Corporation shall have at least three (3) directors.

2. Initial Board. The initial directors are:

- Rajendra Sonarikar
- Jayant Pant
- Devananda Gaddam

The Articles of Incorporation identify these three individuals as directors.

3. Authority. The Board shall manage and oversee the affairs and activities of the Corporation.

4. Terms. Directors shall serve one-year terms unless the Board establishes another term permitted by law.

5. Election and Vacancies. Because the Corporation has no members, the Board shall elect directors and fill vacancies by majority vote of the directors then in office.

6. Removal or Resignation. A director may resign by written notice. The Board may remove a director by a two-thirds vote of the directors then in office, subject to applicable law.

7. Meetings. The Board shall meet at least once each year and may hold additional meetings as needed.

8. Quorum. A majority of the directors then in office shall constitute a quorum.

9. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, action of the Board requires a majority vote of directors present at a meeting at which a quorum exists.

10. Remote Meetings and Written Consent. Directors may participate electronically, and the Board may act by written or electronic consent, to the extent permitted by District of Columbia law.

ARTICLE 4 — OFFICERS

The Corporation shall maintain the minimum officers required by District of Columbia law. The Board shall appoint the officers and may determine their titles and duties by Board resolution. No individual officer assignment is made by these Bylaws.

At minimum, the Corporation shall have two separate officers: one responsible for management of the Corporation and one responsible for its financial affairs. The Board shall also assign responsibility for corporate minutes and required records.

ARTICLE 5 — CONFLICTS AND PRIVATE BENEFIT

Directors and officers shall disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest and shall not participate in a decision when required by applicable law or the Corporation's conflict-of-interest procedures.

No part of the Corporation's net earnings shall inure to the benefit of any private individual. The Corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services actually provided and reimburse reasonable expenses in furtherance of its purposes.

ARTICLE 6 — 501(c)(4) COMPLIANCE

The Corporation shall operate primarily to promote social welfare and shall conduct its activities consistently with Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable law.

The Corporation shall not be operated primarily for participation or intervention in political campaigns on behalf of or in opposition to candidates for public office.

The Corporation may engage in lawful lobbying and other public-policy activities consistent with its social-welfare purposes and applicable law.

ARTICLE 7 — FINANCES AND RECORDS

The Corporation shall maintain appropriate financial and corporate records. Corporation funds shall be held in accounts approved by the Board. The Board shall establish reasonable procedures for authorization of expenditures and financial oversight.

ARTICLE 8 — DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution, after payment of lawful liabilities, the Corporation's remaining assets shall be distributed for one or more purposes consistent with Section 501(c)(4) and applicable District of Columbia law, and shall not be distributed for the private benefit of any director, officer, or other private individual.

ARTICLE 9 — AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended or replaced by a two-thirds vote of the directors then in office, provided the amendment is consistent with the Articles of Incorporation and applicable law.
