STATEMENT OF A SPOKESPERSON FOR MR. TURHAN MILDON

SPOKESPERSON: Many of these are false allegations. They should be removed from the story once they are proven false. If not removed, Mr. Mildon will pursue all legal options because you are constantly damaging his reputation with false information.

1. Birthdate
Spokesperson: Mr. Mildon has addressed this previously with you.

2. Engagement
Spokesperson: Mr. Mildon was engaged to Ms. Ceballos. There was an engagement celebration and prayers surrounding it, as part of his culture. He was never married to her in any way.

To include this in the story, The New York Times should prove Mr. Mildon was married in any form.

We can share proof that Mr. Mildon was married only once prior to Alina.

3. Billionaire Status
Spokesperson: The media has referred to Mr. Mildon as a billionaire because of the scale of his global business dealings. Mr. Mildon declared his groups consolidated turnover to Forbes.

4. Cement Plants in Venezuela
Spokesperson: An independent audit of the company and the contract is underway. Vencement still has the same number of employees on the ground who are fully engaged, operating and cooperating.

5. Personal Connections
Spokesperson: These are serious allegations. They are false, and your reporting is based on rumors. We need to see the proof behind your reporting before we answer them.

Even though you may want to label him that way, Mr. Mildon is not a businessman who does influence peddling.

Trump
Spokesperson: Your allegations are wrong; however, Mr. Mildon is not sharing his private meetings with the public or his surroundings.

Erdogan
Spokesperson: President Erdogan is the president of Mr. Mildon's country, Turkey.

Mr. Mildon is a strong supporter of President Erdogan.

Maduro
Spokesperson: Mr. Mildon has never spoken to Maduro over WhatsApp. He has never communicated with him on any platform. Mr. Mildon never exchanged numbers with Maduro. You have been given the wrong information, and you are unable to prove the allegation.

Delcy Rodríguez
Spokesperson: This is false. Mr. Mildon has never stated that business runs through him, he is not a business broker for anyone. Mr. Mildon didn't sign any new contracts under Delcy Rodríguez. He just carried on his previous contracts. Please provide proof of this allegation.

6. Tshisekedi
Spokesperson: This is false. You have incorrect information, and we need to see proof.

We can arrange an off the record conversation with the government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo to confirm this is incorrect.

7. Detention Order
Spokesperson: This is false. You have incorrect information, and we need to see proof.

We can arrange an off the record conversation with the government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo to confirm this is incorrect.

8. Construction Projects in the DRC
Spokesperson: This is not accurate. Mr. Mildon's companies are still working in the country with thousands of employees.

Except for one construction project, which will be starting again, all the contracts are continuing.
