An amendment in response Question # 12.
Improvement of Arab-American relations by exposing to the American public, Arab civilization, culture and the development and progress that have taken place in the Middle East. We bring to the American public, the Arab point of view and the true dimensions and all aspects of the Middle East Conflict. We try to point out the mutual interest between the United States and the Arab World and to encourage an even-handed American policy in the Middle East. We also present the just aims and the struggle of Palestine, to restore their right to freedom and to self-determination.

As indicated in the body of the report of the period, we publish and/or disseminate materials, we publish and disseminate newsletters, advertise occasionally, and some of our staff lectures, all of which is duly recorded in the semi-annual report for that period.

The undersigned swear(s) or affirm(s) that he has (they have) read the information set forth in this amendment and that he is (they are) familiar with the contents thereof and that such contents are in their entirety true and accurate to the best of his (their) knowledge and belief.

(Both copies of this amendment shall be signed and sworn to before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths by the agent, if the registrant is an individual, or by a majority of those partners, officers, directors or persons performing similar functions who are in the United States, if the registrant is an organization.)
