Mr. Mikisaburo Taniguchi, Director
Japan Trade Promotion Office
895 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York

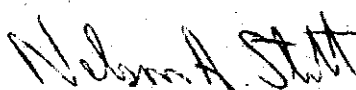

Dear Mr. Taniguchi:

In order to confirm our oral discussions, our Council (newly named the United States-Japan Trade Council) is very happy to enroll your organization, the Japan Trade Promotion Office, as a sustaining and contributing member. We understand your support will consist of sustaining membership dues in the amount of $100 per year and additional contributions not to exceed $68,000 during the coming 10-month period, provided your financial situation permits such disbursement.

In return, the United States-Japan Trade Council agrees to expend its best efforts in the direction of fostering friendlier trade relations between the two countries. You will be separately provided with our proposed program of activities for the period and we would welcome your suggestions thereon.

I take pleasure in welcoming the Japan Trade Promotion office to our Council's membership. You may be assured that we consider you one of our most valued members.

Sincerely yours,

Nelson A. Stitt
Director
