AGREEMENT BETWEEN
ELECTRONIC INDUSTRIES ASSOCIATION OF JAPAN (EIA-J)
AND
H. WILLIAM TANAKA

This is an Agreement entered into between the Electronic Industries Association of Japan (hereinafter referred to as "EIA-J") of Tokyo, Japan and H. William Tanaka, Counselor at Law (hereinafter referred to as "Counsel") of Washington, D.C., wherein Counsel agrees to perform the following services.

WHEREAS, EIA-J desires the furnishing of legal analysis services.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

To render legal analysis services with regard to legislative and administrative proposals or actions which may affect trade between the U.S. and Japan of any electronic products exported or imported by the members of EIA-J. These services to be rendered will be submitted in written form when deemed appropriate by Counsel, or at the request of EIA-J.

In addition to the foregoing, publicly available copies of the various bills introduced, hearing records, administrative orders, press releases, and other relevant documentary materials issued by the Government will be transmitted to your organization.

Association agrees to pay Counsel an annual retainer fee of $40,000.00 (Forty Thousand Dollars) to be remitted within a reasonable time after execution of this Agreement, but no later than July 1, 1983.

In addition to the above cited fee, the EIA-J agrees to pay Counsel $850.00 (Eight Hundred and Fifty Dollars) per each day spent outside of Washington, D.C., including travel time, for services to be rendered by Counsel, at the specific request of EIA-J.

This Agreement shall not include services to be rendered specifically with respect to any particular legislative, administrative or executive action involving extensive representation, whether in the form of personal appearances, drafting, research and submission of briefs and testimony in connection with formal congressional or administrative hearings or services with respect to any specific public relations projects.
